

Tree Survey of Wally Bauman Woods
performed Fall 2004

Quentin J Carpenter, Lecturer
Gaylord Nelson Institute For Environmental Studies
122 Science Hall
550 N Park St
Madison, WI 53706
(608) 263-7771
(608) 263-5481
qcarpent@facstaff.wisc.edu

Eighteen students surveyed the trees of Wally Bauman Woods using the "Quarter Point" method as part of their training in the Field Ecology Workshop. The survey took about two hours, and luckily, it was a clear evening as this class runs from 5 to 7:30 pm.

The compiled data provide an estimate of the tree density of the woods and the frequency and dominance relationship among the species. No ground cover data were collected. Summary data are available.