

Tree Survey of Muir Woods

performed May 25, 2004

Quentin J Carpenter, Lecturer
Gaylord Nelson Institute For Environmental Studies
122 Science Hall
550 N Park St
Madison, WI 53706
(608) 263-7771
(608) 263-5481
qcarpent@facstaff.wisc.edu

On May 25th, 17 students in the Field Ecology Workshop did a quarter-point survey of Muir Woods. Their survey took about two hours working in five groups. We had spent an hour the previous day learning to identify the trees. Their findings were similar to past groups. I have ten years of data (paper copies) that could be summarized.